

Log Jack

Frontline log jacks are designed using heavy 4" H-beam uprights and a 1" thick steel log cradle that's notched for various diameter logs while being cut-up with bar chain. This unit has two independent working hydraulic cylinders to help prevent bar pinching. 2" x 14" hydraulic cylinders are standard and come complete with hydraulic valve and hoses.